

Women's History Month events among special programs at the museums of the State of Delaware in March 2019

(DOVER, Del.—Feb. 20, 2019)—The Division of Historical and Cultural Affairs will be hosting eight special events during the month of March 2019 at the museums of the State of Delaware. Two of these programs will be presented in celebration of National Women's History Month. A full schedule is included below. All programs are free and open to the public.

Operatic soprano Rosa Ponselle will be one of the artists featured in the "The Female Artists of Victor" program at the Johnson Victrola Museum on March 2,

Designated by joint resolutions of the United States House of Representatives and Senate and proclaimed by the American president, National Women's History Month is an opportunity to honor and celebrate women's lives and historic achievements. Each year National Women's History Month employs a unifying theme and recognizes national honorees whose work and lives testify to that theme. For 2019, the theme is "Visionary Women: Champions of Peace and Nonviolence." The theme honors women who have led efforts to end war, violence and injustice, and pioneered the use of nonviolence to change society.
